SUPERVISORS COGGS HONORS BISHOP SEDGWICK DANIELS

Milwaukee, WI – At the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors meeting on December 18th, 2009, Milwaukee County Supervisor Elizabeth M. Coggs presented a citation to Bishop Sedgwick Daniels of Holy Redeemer Institutional Church of God in Christ in honor of his election to the International General Board of the Church of God in Christ, Inc. In 1986, Bishop Daniels founded Holy Redeemer Institutional Church in Milwaukee. Since then, he has founded numerous other community assets, including Holy Redeemer Christian Academy, Wisconsin's first African-American Pentecostal Christian Academy.

“Bishop Daniels talks the talk and walks the walk,” Supervisor Coggs said. “His professionalism, inclusiveness and commitment to humanity leave a lasting impact on Milwaukee County. I am pleased to recognize and commend Bishop Daniels for his more than two decades of religious and community service.”

(Chairman Lee Holloway, Supervisor Coggs, Bishop Daniels, Supervisor Toni M. Clark, County Executive Scott Walker, Supervisor Theo Lipscomb)
